

OUT BOATING
by East Coast Charters

Top Scenic Hiking Trails in Catalina Island

www.outboating.com

1. Eastern Cliff Trail

Among the island's best-kept secrets, the Eastern Cliff Trail is a must for hikers who crave solitude and jaw-dropping views.

This trail weaves through native vegetation and gently ascends toward a towering cliff face, offering unmatched panoramas of the Caribbean below.

2. Playa Grande Coastal Walk

Perfect for laid-back explorers or families, the Playa Grande Coastal Walk is a low-effort, high-reward trail that hugs the shoreline.

It begins at Playa Grande-Catalina's main beach-and follows a meandering path along the coast.

3. Interior Nature Trail

If you're curious about Catalina's biodiversity and interior ecosystems, this trail is for you.

The Interior Nature Trail dives into the heart of the island, offering an immersive journey through tropical flora and glimpses of elusive wildlife.

4. Western Shoreline Sunset Trail

Nothing compares to watching the sun set into the Caribbean from the Western Shoreline Sunset Trail. This easy, coastal path is accessible to all and becomes pure magic during twilight.

5. Historical Exploration Trail

Though not packed with ancient ruins, Catalina Island offers a culturally enriching walk through its Historical Exploration Trail.

This short path tells the story of the island's indigenous people, colonial past, and transformation into a tourist destination.

Combine Hiking With Water Activities

Book your luxury yacht rental with Outboating and sail into adventure, because the best way to explore paradise is by land and sea.