Top 9 Car Accessories Websites and Brands in India for 2026

For many in India, a car isn't just a mode of transport—it's a second home. Whether you are navigating the chaotic streets of Mumbai or preparing for a rugged road trip to Leh, the right accessories can transform your driving experience from ordinary to exceptional.

The Indian automotive aftermarket has exploded with options, moving beyond simple seat covers to high-tech AI dash cams and professional-grade off-roading kits. If you're looking to upgrade your ride, here are the top 9 websites and brands leading the charge in 2026.

1. Auto Stylenn (For Premium Styling & Off-Roading)

If your goal is to make heads turn, Auto Stylenn is the premier destination. They have carved a niche in the "aggressive modification" market. From Wrangler-style conversion kits for the Mahindra Thar to sophisticated body kits for the Fortuner and Scorpio-N, they specialize in exterior transformations that look factory-fitted but feel custom-made.

2. Boodmo (The "Amazon" of Spare Parts)

For functional upgrades and genuine repairs, Boodmo remains the undisputed king. With a massive database of over 10 million spares, it's the best place to find everything from OEM wipers and filters to specific interior trim pieces that are often hard to find at local garages.

3. AutoFurnish (The Interior Specialist)

Comfort begins with the cabin, and AutoFurnish excels here. They are widely recognized for their premium 7D and 9D foot mats, which offer edge-to-edge protection. Their custom-fit seat covers and high-durability car body covers make them a staple for new car owners.

4. Motorhunk (For Lifestyle & Chrome Gadgets)

Motorhunk offers one of India's most diverse catalogs. Whether you want ambient lighting, chrome garnishes, or high-end infotainment systems, this platform provides a one-stop-shop experience with competitive pricing and pan-India shipping.

5. DriveStylish (For Utility & Modern Tech)

DriveStylish has gained massive traction by balancing aesthetics with utility. They are particularly popular for exterior accessories like side steppers, roof rails, and bumper protectors. They also offer a curated selection of Android infotainment screens that modernize older car dashboards.

6. Stellar 4x4 (The Off-Road Authority)

Stellar 4x4 is quickly becoming a go-to destination for high-quality, aesthetics-driven performance upgrades. They specialize in a wide range of premium aftermarket accessories, from rugged metal bumpers and functional snorkels to specialized gear for the new Mahindra Thar Roxx and Toyota Hilux. If you want to transform your 4WD from a factory stock vehicle into a trail-ready beast with a modern edge, Stellar 4x4 belongs on your radar.

7. Uno Minda (D2C Trusted Brand)

A giant in the OEM space, Uno Minda recently launched its D2C (Direct-to-Consumer) platform, UnoMindaKart. This allows car owners to buy industrial-grade alloy wheels, high-intensity bulbs, and electrical components directly from a brand that supplies the car manufacturers themselves.

8. Carorbis (For Performance & Detailing)

If you are a DIY enthusiast who loves detailing, Carorbis is your best bet. They stock premium car care brands like Bosch, Philips, and Wavex. From high-performance ceramic coatings to specialized engine additives, they focus on the "health" and "shine" of your vehicle.

9. Amazon Automotive (For Tech & Gadgets)

While not a specialized car site, Amazon India remains a powerhouse for electronic car accessories. It is the best place to buy 70mai or Qubo Dash Cams, portable tyre inflators, and vacuum cleaners, thanks to their robust review system and easy return policies.
