

Wooden Stacking Toys That Grow with Your Child's Early Years

Touching, piling up, balancing, then falling and getting up again, that's how children learn by play. Wooden stacking toys foster this learning style by allowing children to explore in their own time. Through each pile up, balance and rebuild, children learn about shapes, sizes and motion, while still enjoying play.

The ToysLink range includes colourful wooden stacking toys that allow for play by small hands. They are easy to hold and arrange in piles and can be enjoyed with multiple plays in a day in your own home, your child's nursery or early learning centre.

What Makes Wooden Stacking Toys Great?

Children enjoy activities that let them experiment without feeling rushed. With wooden stacking toys, children can stack, balance and rebuild over and over again and find new ways to enjoy them.
